

Awards

Companies are awarded annually for:

- notable success in exports - international presence
- production of established brands
- environmental actions - green development
- showing social responsibility
- employment increase
- research, innovation and technological progress
- long tradition and presence in the greek market
- with new innovative business ideas (innovative entrepreneurship)
- optimum methods of e-business

Awards are also given to:

- developing small & medium size enterprises
- self made businessmen
- new entrepreneurs